

Thornford CE Primary School – Reward Systems – September 2023

AIM: To inspire ALL pupils to achieve their full potential in everything they do

REWARD LEVEL	Given for:	Given by:	Type of Reward Available	How are the Rewards Given	Comments
1	Good work, politeness, helpfulness, participation, homework, effort, improvement in an area, positive attitude	All staff	Stickers, stamps Team points	All staff and placed on the student's work / sheet on the class wall	4 TEAMS so that pupils are working for each other as well as themselves
2	Consistent application of the above – e.g. many 'Team points' / reading records etc. an exceptional one-off piece of work. This will include recommendation for 'Worker of the Week' & 'Role Models' – in Achievement Assembly	All staff	if a pupil achieves 15 team points within a week they receive a small prize (school pencil / school sticker etc.) Sticker & entry into the 'Worker of the Week' – special book & sitting on the 'Special Bench' + 'Role Model of the Week'	By all staff and fed through class teachers 4 school team names – results of weekly total announced during Achievement Assembly	Our School Council have decided the team names – Staff to allocate pupils to teams
3	Exceptional pieces of work or lengthy project / homework. Consistent hard work / attitude within class to academic studies / exceptional change of attitude / behaviour. Positive contribution to school life, including exceptional reports (dramatically improved reports or behaviour / effort). Excellent & consistent behaviour	All staff / Head teacher	Head teachers Commendation / Sticker / post card sent home with explanation / 3 x postcards = £5 book tokens	Headteacher gives the reward after discussion with other staff	A difficult award to achieve – lots of effort required

In addition to these rewards the school has many other systems including:

Worker / Most Improved Pupil of the Term for each year group (split year groups will have a nominated pupil from each class)

Awards distributed at the End of Year Leavers Service for 'Citizenship', 'Sport' & 'Academic' achievements.

An attendance reward is in place and certificates are given to pupils at the end of the Summer Term